Speaker 1: In Florida, we have a lot of transient companies coming in here taking advantage of the hurricanes and the high demand for people wanting to get the roof fixed and have protection. A lot of people that come down here during the busy periods, they pack up and they leave when work slows down. So, there's been multiple people that I've talked to that have said, "It's nice to know Tip Top's been around for such a long time because, if I have an issue with my roof, I want to be able to get ahold of the people that did it."
